A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever Exhibited.

Rev. M. W. STAPLES, Inventor and Patentee.

THIS BOILER is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes. The hot suds and steam by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested, and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer, by those who have used it.
All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket, can be washed perfectly and with ease and without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable, as the rubbing, rolling and pressing process must necessarily full them more or less.
It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.
The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.
The saving in the wear of clothes will soon pay for the outlay.
It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; thus being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.
Hundreds of these Boilers are being sold each week, giving perfect satisfaction.
Every Boiler sold guaranteed to do all we claim, or is may be refunded.
Can be seen in full operation at Longee & Brother's.
We are selling COUNTY RIGHTS rapidly.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1868.

STATE FINANCES—INTEREST.

The time was, when every man felt anxious to preserve the long sustained honor, integrity and credit of the State. The good fame of the State was then dear to every citizen. That day is fast passing away—North Carolina is in posession of the vandals. The hordes from the North are not, however, alone concerned in despoiling her good name and ravaging her people. Men to the "manor born" have entered into collusion with those who are clutching at every available means to fill their own pockets, and, if possible, are becoming more greedy for the lion's share. Good men, patriotic citizens, stand aghast and aloof from such wholesale schemes of public plunder, and, convinced of their inability to arrest the progress of this general and abominable thievery, are either silent or give tacit support to these schemes. There are those in the General Assembly, however, we are glad to say, who will not keep their mouths but will fight this unconscionable, yet determined, "moggy ring" to the death. Let the reader carefully consider the able and truthful speech of Mr. Robbins, the Senator from Rowan and Davie, in to-day's issue.

The Sentinel has, for months, raised its voice of warning. We have called public attention, time and again, to the unscrupulous plans of certain Radical leaders among us, but, with unblushing pertinacity, these spoilers upon the public credit prest their schemes with unerring certainty, knowing their men and the game. Nothing but a total loss of public credit will arrest the schemes of these plunderers. Nothing but a full exposure of these schemes, and a truthful exhibit of the real condition of the State, will open the eyes of the money-barons of Wall Street to the utter recklessness of extending further the State credit.

The bondholders of the North are beginning to look our condition in the face.—They have been misled and deceived, already, to their sorrow, by the misrepresentations of "carpet-baggers," and others, as to the certainty of paying the State interest. The public pledge of Gov. Holden and the Public Treasurer, that the State interest would be paid on the 1st of January, led us, even, to hope that it might be so, but the further pledge that the State would continue to pay interest upon her bonds, we knew was a deception and a cheat. It is an impossibility to draw from the pockets of the poverty stricken people of North Carolina the amount necessary to pay the State's interest accruing in 1869, and, beyond that, the prospect is still worse.

The statement to the General Assembly of the Public Treasurer, backed by Gov. Holden, that the Treasurer will be unable to pay the interest due on the 1st of January next, without further loans, is a patent confession of the falsehood of the pledges made as to the certainty of paying that interest; and the proposition to empower the Public Treasurer to sell or mortgage the property of the State to effect the loans, is a palpable admission that the State is on its last legs.

The House, on Saturday, acted with more than its ordinary discretion in refusing to place such a carte blanche in the hands of the Public Treasurer as to allow him to mortgage or sell the property of the State without limitation. But suppose this power were given to the Public Treasurer, would that enable him to effect the loan desired, except upon the most ruinous terms? The State can give no better indemnity, for the payment of a loan, than the recent Railroad coupon bonds at 8 per cent. gave to the purchaser, and yet there was realized for the Treasury only $117,600 of $180,000 worth of bonds—thus losing $62,400! The Public Treasurer must now borrow at least $800,000 to meet the wants of the Treasury. Should he effect a loan of that amount, at the same rate, the Treasury would realize about $195,000.—thus losing $105 000!! At this rate, how long can the State borrow, and when can it ever pay?

This system of management, when taken in connection with the persistent extravagance and corruption now in vogue with the party in power, must inevitably bring bankruptcy and repudiation. Will capitalists lend their means, with such prospects before them? We judge not.

P. S. It will be seen, by reference to the House proceedings on yesterday, that that body so shaped, and finally passed, the bill submitted by the Governor and Treasurer, as simply to provide for the borrowing a sufficient sum of money, at 8 per cent., to pay the January interest on the public debt. In order to accomplish this, the Treasurer is empowered to pledge payment in the first receipts from Sheriffs under the Tax Bill to be framed for 1869. How the April and July interest is to be paid, and the ordinary and extra ordinary expenses of the State government met, is a question left in future, and one that cannot be answered, unless upon the idea of taxation unwarranted by the Constitution and annihilating to the industry and spirit of the people.—This cannot be done. The people can stand but little more than what they are now groaning and writhing under.

A NEW STEAMER, named the Robert E. Lee, has just been put upon the Cape Fear, to ply between Fayetteville and Wilmington. Her first trip was every way successful.

CALENDAR.

The bill to re-enact and confirm certain acts in relation to certain Railroad Companies in this State, came up.

Mr. Rich offered the following amendment, to wit:

Strike out of the bill all relating to the Chatham Railroad Company, and amend by adding the following sections:

SECTION 4. The Public Treasurer is hereby directed, whenever the President of the Chatham Railroad Company shall certify that the grading of the Road between Cheraw, in South Carolina, and the Gulf or some other point on the Chatham Railroad between Raleigh and the Gulf, has been let to contract, to subscribe to the capital stock of said Company two million dollars in behalf of the State, which subscription shall be paid by delivering to the President of said Company coupon bonds of the State at par, of the denomination of one thousand dollars, dated October 1st, 1868, and payable thirty years thereafter, bearing six per cent. interest, payable semi-annually, principal and interest payable in the City of New York, said bonds to be signed by the Governor, countersigned by the Treasurer and sealed with the Great Seal of the State, and issued under the provisions of chapter 90, Revised Code: Provided, That said bonds shall only be issued on the surrender of a like amount of bonds of the State heretofore issued under "An act to amend the charter of the Chatham Railroad Company," ratified 15th of August, 1868, on which surrender the same amount of bonds delivered by said Company to the State under the said act shall be cancelled. Said subscription shall be preferred stock, and pay a dividend of six per cent. before any dividend shall be declared on the other stock.

SEC. 5. In order to provide for the payment of the interest which may accrue on the bonds issued as above mentioned, there is hereby and shall be annually levied and collected a special tax of one-twentieth of one per cent. on the taxable property of the State, collectable and payable into the Treasury as other public taxes.

SEC. 6. In all meetings of stockholders of said Company, the State shall, for and in behalf of its stock, be entitled to a vote equal to one-third of that cast by individual stockholders, and all the officers of said Company shall be elected by the stockholders as heretofore.

SEC. 7. The capital stock of the said Chatham Railroad Company is hereby increased to three million, two hundred thousand dollars.

Mr. Barrow moved an amendment to the amendment (6th, a ction) by adding in the second line, after the word "to" the words "a pro rata," and by striking out all in the 3rd. line ex cept "vote;" striking out "heretofore," in 5th. line, and adding "here a provided."

After considerable discussion, Mr. Barrow's amendment was rejected, and the original amendment was adopted, and the bill passed its third reading as follows:

AYES.—Messrs. Barrow, Bellamy, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove Cook Davis, Eaves Eppa, (colored,) Forkner, Galloway, (colored,) Hayes, Harlington, Hyman, (colored) Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Martindale, Rich, Richardson, Respass, Smith, Stephens and White.—23.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The joint resolution allowing the Secretary of State $654 for special Clerk hire was taken up, and, on motion of Mr. Stilley, it was re committed to the Finance Committee for further investigation.

CALENDAR.

House bill 102, repealing an act appropriating money to furnish the Executive Mansion, was taken up and passed its third reading.

House bill 114, amendatory of section 473, chapter 10, Code of Civil Procedure, introduced by Mr. Ellis, and reported favorably on by Committee, passed its third reading.

Senate bill to amend an act entitled an act in relation to punishments, was taken up, when Mr. Stilley said there was a bill of the same character now pending in the Senate, and he moved a Committee of Conference. Carried.

Senate Resolution, in favor of W. M. Thompson, W. D. Jones, William Grimes and R. K. Ferrell, paying them certain sums of money, elicited quite a discussion, during which the Chair announced the

SPECIAL ORDER, VIZ:

A Bill to be entitled "An act to authorize the Public Treasurer to supply temporary deficiencies in the Treasury."

Mr. Estes offered the following as section 2:

"As collateral security, for the repayment of the amount borrowed as above mentioned, the Public Treasurer is authorized to pledge such an amount, from the first moneys received from the tax lists of 1869, and to pay the same from the first money received into the Treasury, from this or any other source." Carried.

Mr. Estes also offered an amendment to section 1, to strike out, in line 5, the words "and other appropriations made by law;" also, in line 6, the words "from time to time;" also, in line 8, the words "wants of the Treasury," and insert the words "interest due Jan. 1869."

Mr. Malone moved to further amend by striking out, in lines 8 and 9, same section, the words "not to exceed 8 per cent" and insert the words "at a legal rate of interest."

Messrs. Estes and Downing opposed this amendment.

Mr. Malone, in defence of his amendment, said:

The gentleman from New Hanover says my object is to defeat the bill and to prevent the payment of the interest to fall due in January. I deny the charge. Having taken an oath to support the Constitution (which makes it obligatory on this body to provide for the interest) I shall faithfully support the same. But if I were disposed to impute motives, I might say that the effect of the legislation of this House is to place all the sacred interest of North Carolina in the hands of the capitalists of the country. I would ask why the State has lost her credit? Under a resolution, ratified 3d day of August, 1868, the Treasurer did borrow $160,000 at six per cent. But now it seems that after the State has been thoroughly reconstructed—after the Constitution has provided for this payment by taxation, the credit of the old North State has gone down, until we have to pay 8 per cent interest. Five moths ago, we could get money at 6 per cent; now behold we must not only give collateral security, but must give 8 per cent.

Is it not strange, that after all that has been said about the looming credit of the old North State, she has made such a terribly bad reputation that it is now difficult to borrow money at all. It is known that the Government of the United States, and even individuals, can borrow money at 3 and 4 per cent. If this is the condition of North Carolina it augurs badly for the future. If our credit is getting worse, it is better to stop reconstruction.

We have fallen on strange times indeed. The whole interest of the State seems tending rapidly into the grasping power and control of the capitalists who intend to take the advantage of our pressing necessities. The people must suffer greatly over this unparalleled system of legislation. I hope the amendment will pass. The Treasurer should be bound to make all effort to effect the loan at 6 per cent, which is in fact the legal rate of interest.

Messrs. Vest and French both opposed it.

Mr. Sinclair took the floor in opposition to Mr. Malone's amendment.

Mr. Estes called the previous question, and, the call being sustained, the question recurred upon Mr. Malone's amendment.

Mr. M. called for the yeas and nays, and, the call being sustained, resulted: Yeas 43, Nays 54.

The question recurred upon Mr. Estes' amendment. The question being put, it was carried.

Upon the passage of the bill, as amended, the roll was called, and the vote stood, yeas 70, nays 22.

The following gentlemen voted in the negative, viz:

Messrs. Allison, Boddie, Durham, Ellis, Ferebee, Gibson, Green, Hawkins, Hodnett, Humphries, Moore, Nicholson, Painter, Pou, Shaver, Smith, of Alleghany, Sweat, colored, Thompson and Williams, of Harnett.

Mr. Estes moved to reconsider the vote.

Mr. Laflin moved to lay that motion on the table. Carried.

By consent Mr. Laflin, from the Committee on Internal Improvements, reported upon the following bills:

A bill to amend the charter of the Williamston and Tarboro' Railroad, recommending its passage, with certain amendments.

A bill to be entitled an act amendatory of the act to incorporate the Western North Carolina Railroad and acts amendatory thereto, recommending its passage.

A bill to establish a Turnpike Road from Marion, in McDowell county, to Asheville, in Buncombe county, recommending its passage with an additional section.

Mr. Stilley, who yielded the floor to Mr. Laflin, now claimed the floor, upon a motion of his, pending when the special order was called, to recommit the Senate resolution paying W. M. Thompson and others certain claims, &c.

After some debate, the motion to recommit to the Committee on Claims for further investigation was carried.

Mr. Laflin now moved to suspend the rules and put the bills just reported upon on their second reading, then print and let the discussion come on their third reading.

Mr. Seymour opposed the motion. He would not be hurried into voting thus blindly for the appropriation of millions. He was for internal improvements, but he wished to have a fair opportunity to consider. He therefore moved to print and make them the special order for the 5th. of January.

Mr. Laflin moved to lay the motion on the table, and for a call of the yeas and nays.

Pending that motion, the House, on motion of Mr. Malone, adjourned until 7½ o'clock this evening.

SPEECH OF SENATOR ROBBINS, OF ROWAN,

In opposit on to extravagant Railroad appropriations, delivered in the Senate of North Carolina, Dec. 12, 1868.

The question being upon the bill to divide the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, and to appropriate two million dollars in State bonds to the Western division,

MR. ROBBINS said:

It is full time, Mr. President, that some voice was raised here in vigorous protest against the wild and reckless propositions now pending before this body, by which North Carolina will be hopelessly involved in debt, her credit destroyed, her people beggared, and her fair fame forever tarnished. Would that one of the giant North Carolinians of old days were here to perform this task! But our sages are dead or disfranchised. Humble and inexperienced, upon me the occasion seems to impose this duty. I rise, Mr. President, to discharge that duty,—feebly, perhaps, but yet fearlessly.

It is well known that there is here a Railroad Ring, each member of which is pledged to vote for the appropriations to all the Roads in order to secure one for his own.—Thus banded together, you are giving votes, Senators, for measures which your judgments do not approve. It is a general game of grab; and a multitude of visionary projects are being thus rushed through, the aggregate result of which must be financial ruin to the State. To-day I declare war on this Ring; and if I cannot break it, I shall try to make it at least a ring of fire.

Let us first make a few figures, and see what the debt of the State is, and how much you propose to make it. I shall only mention large items, and not waste time on minor expenditures. Let us state the items under three separate heads: First, The present actual debt in bonds issued at various times, according to the report just submitted to us by the Treasurer. Secondly, the amount of bonds soon to be issued under ordinances and acts of the late Convention and the late session of this General Assembly. Thirdly, the bonds to be issued under the bills now pending and passing here.

1. Actual existing debt, (see Treasurer's report,)		$19,300,915
2. Bonds authorized by Convention and Legislature:
Western R. Road (by Convention,)	$500 000
Western N. C. R. R.,	4,000,000
Williamston and Tarboro' R. Road,	300,000
North Western N. C. R. R.,	410,000
The Penitentiary,	200,000	5,410,000
3. Bonds proposed to be authorized now:
Western N. C. R. R.,	3,000,000
Western R. R.,	1,000,000
Williamston and T. R. Road,	2,200 000
Chimney Rock R. R.,	2,000 000
Eastern and W. R. R.,	2,000,000
Atlantic, Tenn. and Ohio R. R.,	1,500 000
Chapel Hill R. R.,	300,000
North Western N. C. R. R.,	410,000	12,410,000
Total debt as now contemplated,		$37,029,945
The Constitution commands you to provide means to pay the annual interest on this debt. That interest will be,		$2,221,796
The annual expense of State government (see Governor's message,)		375,230
Annual property tax for schools (see Superintendent's report,)		300,000
Total annual tax on property,		$3,097,026

In addition to this about $180,000 State poll tax must be paid. And I have not yet said a word about the town and county and the Federal taxes. Does any one imagine that our impoverished people can bear these burdens—these millions of tax,—when in their prosperous days they thought four or five hundred thousand heavy? You know, Senators, the people cannot bear them.—And yet one of these bills (most of them are rare specimens of literature) uses the words, "There is hereby levied and collected a tax," &c., as if even your enactment could produce the money. It will be as likely to produce it, I admit, as the Sheriff will; for both will fail. I will not insult you by supposing any Senator here is so blind as to expect our people ever to pay the taxes I have enumerated.

But let us view this subject in another light. In each of these several Railroad bills I perceive you propose to levy a tax of a certain per cent on all the property of the State to pay the annual interest on these new appropriations. Thus, for the W. N. C. Railroad you levy ¼ of one per cent; W. R. Road 1 15; Chimney Rock Railroad 1-20; W. and T. R. Road 1-12; N. W. N. C. R. Road 1-40; A. T. and O. R. Road 1-20; E. and W. R. Road 1-20; Chatham R. Road 1-20. Adding these fractions together, we have ½ of one per cent, or 50 cents on the $100 of property; and this is the sum you propose to raise to meet the interest on your new appropriations alone. But the Public Treasurer says you can, under the present State Constitution, only tax property about 40 cents on $100 for all State purposes.—(See his report, page 11.) On this showing, where are your resources for meeting the interest on the existing debt, the expenses of the State government, of the schools and other matters? You leave us less than nothing for all these things!

We have now made figures enough.—Here is demonstration piled on demonstration, proving that no honest road lies before us if the reckless measures now pending are carried. Ye men of the Ring, look my figures in the face, and answer them if you can! But I know you will not attempt this. They are not to be refuted. No one can impugn their correctness. What then is the necessary conclusion? Why, that one of the most gigantic swindles is on foot that men were ever made victims to. I understand the covert design underneath all these projects; and in the name of North Carolina honor and honesty, I, an humble son of an untarnished old State, stand up here to-day, almost single handed, to beard this giant swindle in its den and expose it to the gaze and the execrations of mankind.

The plot is first to raise some money by some means,—by borrowing it, by selling or mortgaging the State's property,—by vending, if necessary, the very coats off our backs,—to raise some money, and pay the interest on our debt accruing next January, April, and July. This will make a show of honesty and promptness in payment, and will, it is hoped, put our bonds up to a good price for several months to come. In this condition of the bond market, all these twelve millions new bonds are to be issued and sold promptly. Then we are to stop paying interest for the best of reasons,—nothing to pay with,—no adequate tax possible to be collected, no more State property to sell, and when these projected Railroad Companies have pocketed the proceeds of this sharp operation, then we are to stand from under, and let the crash come on the bond buyers whom we have entrapped into buying these forthcoming new bonds! Does not every man here, with his eyes open and his intellect awake, see that this is the scheme? Is it not darkly whispered in every corner? Certainly it is.

Now, Mr. President, I unhesitatingly denounce all this as shamelessly dishonest and utterly unworthy of North Carolina. Our consciences are sought to be silenced with the assurance that this scheme will secure us some roads. Suppose it did. Will a few roads compensate North Carolina for the discredit thus fastened on her through all the mighty future? No, Sir. Neither a State nor an individual can live and prosper without character among men, to say nothing of that divine Nemesis which always curses ill gotten gains. But who knows we shall get the roads? May not those, who thus deliberately cheat the rest of the world, cheat North Carolina too? May they not pocket these millions and then disappoint us? What security have we? One says, the mortgages on the roads. But these roads are no worth now half the amount we are lending them; and on some of them the first spade is not yet stuck into the ground. What are such mortgages worth?

I am a friend of Internal Improvements. No Senator here is more so. I would be delighted to see all these roads built. It is not against the roads I speak, but against contracting debts we can never pay. Not against the roads! Not again t the roads! Let this never be forgotten! I long to see the Iron Horse with his burden of rich freights careering along by the fertile shores of the Albemarle and far away among the peaks where the stillness is now unbroken save by the musical voice of that grand-daughter of the mountains—the laughing Swannanoa. But these pleasing visions must not be suffered to cast a glamour over our eyes to blind us to right and wrong.—Even Railroads are too dear when they cost us dishonor.

I beg to remind you also, Senators, that these measures, by bankrupting the State, will indefinitely postpone the effective establishment of our system of schools. If I am a friend of Railroads, I am still more a friend of Schools. Give me a well-educated people, and I will build your Railroads, found your manufactories, build up your mechanic and agricultural industry, and quickly make your State rich and powerful. In the name of three hundred thousand children, of both races, now crying for knowledge in North Carolina, I protest against this expending in reckless speculation the means by which they ought to be educated. If you will thus waste their resources and doom them to ignorance, I call upon the white man in his cottage and the black man in his cabin to raise their united voice to rebuke those who thus neglect the best of causes, and condemn this generation of children now growing up to grope their way through this world in mental darkness. I ask the attention of the colored members of this Legislature to this sin which is about to be perpetrated particularly against their own race. Will they wink at it or will they endorse it with their votes? Every man, whether he admits it or not, who votes for these extravagant measures now, is really an enemy to Schools. Let the people make a note of him.

Now, Mr. President, I have about gone over the points I wished to touch. I am deeply sensible of the responsibility under which I have spoken. But I know that the truth of my words is, and will be, felt in every man's secret soul. My object has been and will yet be, to preserve the credit of North Carolina, if possible, by preventing this proposed increase of our debt, which would make it still more unmanageable than it now is, and by reason of the taxation feature, in each one of these bills, would certainly tax our people at once to beggary. I have endeavored to expose the ghastly features of the swindling plot contrived by the prime movers who manage this Railroad Ring. I do not charge dishonesty on every man who may have voted with it here of re. I think it likely that some good men have been seduced into doing so. They fancied they heard the whistle of the locomotive in the vicinity of their homes, and the pleasing sound has lulled their judgment to sleep. But after the clear exhibition which has now been given of the unsound basis on which these projects stand, and the secret plot entered into by a few men to perpetrate a deliberate swindle, whoever shall still adhere to this scheme and sustain this Ring, I shall, myself, use no hard words about them here, but I fear the world will call them all swindlers.

So far as may be in my power, I mean to prevent the consummation of the plot which I have mentioned. Go ahead, ye in o the Ring, and vote me down amid laughter and jeers. This is your day of triumph, but mine is at hand. The bond buyers of the world are listening to this voice, to-day, and they will heed it, though you do not. I tell them to give you a wide berth, and they will. These new Wild Cat Bonds of yours, if they are issued, will not bring one dollar in the thousand; and I hope this fact will prevent their issue, and save us from this increase of debt. You are setting a trap for the bond buyers; I warn them of it, and they will see it. "In vain is the net spread in the sight of any bird."

I am aware of the onslaughts which will be made upon me by corrupt men, on account of the course I have taken in this matter. Disappointed in their schemes of plunder, they will turn on me. I am prepared for all this; I have counted the cost; I bid them defiance. I believe in the honesty and integrity of the masses of the people of North Carolina. To their judgment I submit this matter. Let them decide the issue which I make to-day with this Ring. I know the constituency which I represent here well enough to feel sure that for every word of invective I may launch against dishonesty they will give me two words of thanks. Brave and honest themselves, they expect me to be a fearless and an honest representative. This shall ever be my aim. Their approval will be my sufficient reward.

A negro tax collector down South called on a white man for his taxes. Says he, "Mr. Smith, dis is de second time I called on you for de taxes. How de debbil d'you 'spose we cuffed people am to lib, if you white people don't pay your taxes"

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to imitate it difficult and dangerous. It was examined by distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A curious, perplexing a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable, each a preparation, they said, and long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, as of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of this oil of juniper, which forms one of the principal ingredients of the fluid, together with an undisputed character of the medicament, gave it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a generic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and endowed with such value to the schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph engraved on each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottom, and the corks were stamped with the same device. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam schnapps, in 1850; and the label was deposited, as the trade mark, in the United Sta es Astatic Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the parties who prey upon the reputation of meritorious medicines by vending counterfeit trash under those names, that the protections so carefully thrown around these schnapps would have prevented the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They were, however only to have stimulated the capacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the label of Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps are removed from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements para hrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, disreputable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, for the most disreputable of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession, and the sick for whom the celebrated Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally concerned with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is carried from a variety of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown to the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every adulterate and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been required to institute inquiries of the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In consequence, the undersigned would say that he has instituted, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in all parts of the country, a perfect system of the purity and scientific excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which no designed amount of science or ingenuity could overleap; that he has engaged counsel to prosecute with the utmost rigor of the law all persons who shall attempt to counterfeit the article, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In conclusion, the undersigned would say that he has instituted, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in all parts of the country, a perfect system of the purity and scientific excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic schnapps; that he has

RELIGIOUS SERVICES ON SUNDAY.—As heretofore stated, Rt. Rev. James Gibbons, Bishop of Wilmington, officiated in the Catholic Church in this City, on Sunday—preaching morning and night to large and interested audiences. On yesterday morning, he administered the rite of Confirmation. The Bishop made a fine impression by his unassuming manners and Christian earnestness. The following is an abstract of his excellent discourse on Sunday morning:

The text was: St. Paul to Corinthians, chap. 13, and Gospel of St. Luke, chap. 10, —the Parable of the good Samaritan.

The Bishop divided his discourse into three heads: 1st. The motives for loving our neighbor. 2d. Who is my neighbor, whom we are bound to love? 3rd. How shall I love my neighbor?

1st. Motives of charity, found in 4th chapter of St. Paul to Ephesians, 1st v. and seq. We are one body, one social body.—The members of a social body should have the same sympathy for each other as the members of the physical body have. We are sanctified by the same spirit, and not many spirits. We all believe the same great fundamental doctrines of, and hope for, the same Heaven. We should begin on earth a friendship and fellowship we hope to perpetuate in Heaven. Redeemed by the same Lord, whose blood was shed not only to cleanse our souls from sin, but to cement our hearts in charity—children of the same Father, and consequently brothers and sisters in the same great human family! The soul of our neighbor stamped with the image and likeness of God; as we would love the image of an earthly parent impressed upon brass or copper, regardless of the baseness of the metal, so should we love our neighbor, stamped with the immortal image of God, overlooking his base qualities and unamiable dispositions.

Without love of our neighbor, love of God is impossible; for it, says John, we love not our neighbor, whom we see, how can we love God, whom we see not? No virtue is acceptable to God so long as we harbor in our hearts a single bitterness towards our neighbor, for S. Paul, in the text of the discourse, says: If I should speak with the tongues of angels and had not charity, I should be as a sounding brass and tinkling cymbal, &c.

2nd. Who is my neighbor? Under this term are included all the children of the human family, irrespective of race or religion. We must love even our enemies.—Christ said: "You know it has been said of old, thou shalt love thy friend and hate thy enemy; but I say to you love your enemies, do good to them that hate you, bless them which curse you," &c.—Matthew, 5th chap. —that you may be children of your Father in Heaven, who maketh his sun to shine on the good and bad and raineth on the just and unjust, &c.

Political enimies—we must even love them. The parable of the good Samaritan forcibly illustrates this point. The good Samaritan was the political enemy of the prostrate Jew, into whose wounds he poured oil and wine, and whom he bore to the inn and cared for. Would to God that we, forgetful of past political differences, would likewise extend to our suffering brother the hand of sympathy and friendship!

3rd. How shall we love our neighbor?—In thought, word and deed, (St. John.)—Let us love not in word and tongue only, but in deed and truth. It is to those especially, who have practiced this benevolence to the suffering brother, that Christ promises a kingdom in Heaven, saying, on the last day, Come, ye blessed of my Father, possess the kingdom prepared for you; for I was hungry, &c. (See Matt., 25th ch., 34 et seq.)

Rev. Dr. Deems preached at the Methodist Church, in the morning, from John, 1 ch., 16 v: "And of His fullness have all we received; and grace for grace." The text was most ably and eloquently expounded and illustrated,—the whole sermon breathing not only the most grateful praise, but abounding in those gems of thought and language, in the production of which Dr. Deems has no superior.

On Sunday night, the Rev. Dr. Duncan, President of Randolph Macon College, delivered a discourse before the Young Men's Christian Association, in the Baptist Church, which was listened to with profound and delighted attention by an immense auditory. His subject was "The unfinished business of Life," and we have never heard a more striking and eloquent exposition of that mighty theme. The underlying argument of the whole Lecture, that life is totally imperfect, when not squared by the supreme rule of Christianity, was enforced with a richness of illustration and a solemnity of manner that were most impressive. At the conclusion of the discourse, and after some touching remarks from Dr. Deems, a collection, in furtherance of the benevolent objects of the Association, was taken up, from which, we are glad to say, a very handsome sum was realized.

In Christ Church, (Episcopal,) the Rev. Dr. Mason delivered one of his usual practical and evangelical sermons.

We are requested to announce that the Rt. Rev. Bishop Gibbons will preach in the Catholic Church, at 7 o'clock, to-morrow (Wednesday) night, December 16th.

Rt. Rev. Thomas Atkinson, Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, will preach and administer the rite of Confirmation at Christ Church, in this City, on Sunday, the 17th. prox.

THE RADICAL NOMINEE FOR MAYOR.—From the best information which we are able to gather, this degenerate specimen first saw light somewhere in Currituck county. His parents, poor and worthy people, were unable to incur the expense necessary to the proper nurture of the future distinguished Divine. So, at a youthful and tender age, the subject of these lines was bound out to a gentleman by the name of Mr. Williams.

During the early years of "Collard's" apprenticeship, not a blot, we are told, stained his character, and his application to join the Church was joyfully received. So acceptable and active did the precocious youth render himself, that, at last, the Church, to reward his pious endeavors, resolved to train and educate him for the ministry. Well we suppose he was educated, for we lose all trace of him until he again appeared on the stage, at the commencement of the war, a full-fledged parson (so-called.) By his blood and thunder sermons and untiring zeal in circulating in the different camps of Confederate troops, urging them to "gird up their loins" and do battle bravely in the cause, the parson would seem to have conceived the idea of being distinguished by future historians as a second "Peter the Hermit."

We will not stop here to dwell upon the services the "Reverend" gentleman rendered the dying, wounded and sick in the camps and hospitals, but will pass on to a more important era of his life.

After the closing scene at Appomattox Court House, like every body else in these diggins, Collards was exceedingly "hard up," and, in order to "raise the wind," engaged in matters secular. Being an ardent "rebel," he commenced actively to canvass the country to obtain subscribers to those two "treasonable works"—"Wearing the Grey," and (good heavens!) Pollard's "Lost Cause." To every man of decided Southern proclivities did the parson make an eloquent appeal, telling them, one may imagine, from his known zeal, that the differences between the Bible and those two works was so very small that it required a microscopic view to ascertain it.

We cannot locate the precise time of the following incident in the history of the subject of our sketch; but it is vouched for:

Some young men, from Currituck County, who knew the parson of old, paid a visit to Norfolk, and, as some young men will unfortunately, do, they got on a "bender," under the mistaken idea that they could, thereby, enjoy, with a greater zest, the "pleasures" of the City. During one of their nocturnal rambles, chance led them into a sad place of more than doubtful repute, and there, to their great surprise, they saw the Rev. J. N. Whitson. Yes there,—there, it is told us,—there was this immaculate Divine, our would-be Mayor.

On being interrogated, as to what induced a man of his cloth to enter such a habitation, with a look of delightful innocence, and a naivete greatly refreshing, he responded that he was in quest of "Brother Batt." Bro. Batt, being a minister of good standing, hearing of the transaction, and naturally becoming very indignant, had "Bro. Whitson" arraigned, tried, and, it is said, dismissed the Ministry.

Being fearful of taking up too much space with so small a subject, we will only say, in conclusion, that the Rev. J. N. came to this City,—turned politician, canvassed the County of Wake at so much a day, (making Democratic votes wherever he went,) associated on equal terms with the negroes, and is now the Radical nominee for Mayor. During the week he may be seen on the streets, button-holing every colored man he meets, and, on Sunday, in the Church of the Strangers, Hall of the House of Representatives!

N. C. HOME MUTUAL INSURANCE CO.—We are pleased to state that this Company, recently incorporated by the Legislature, is now fully organized. It is fully prepared to do business both upon the Mutual and Joint Stock plan, and parties can take advantage of either. As a guarantee of its solvency, it may be stated that the Company has $20,000 on deposit with the State Treasurer, to be held in trust for the policy holders, and at least $100,000 in stock subscribed, with a portion paid in, in cash,—all liable for losses. The rates are as low as possible, consistent with the success of the Company, and some of our best men, in all portions of the State, are Stockholders.

The following are the officers of the Company: President, J. H. Foote; Vice-President, R. H. Battle, Jr.; Treasurer, John G. Williams; Secretary, W. H. Murdock; Directors, J. H. Foote, John G. Williams, P. A. Dunn, R. H. Battle, Jr., J. H. Davis, J. M. Heck and W. D. Jones.

For particulars as to plan of insurance, &c., address the Secretary.

MEMBER OF CONGRESS COME TO GRIEF.—We learn that the Grand Jury, at the present term of the Circuit Court, (his Honor, Judge Brooks, presiding,) has presented the "Honorable" J. T. Deweese, carpet-bag member of Congress from this District, for violation of the Post office regulations and abuse of the Franking privilege! A Bill of Indictment has been accordingly framed by the District Attorney and found true.

As the matter now undergoes judicial investigation, we refrain from comment, though we may say that the facts in the case are abundant to substantiate the presentment.

OUR FRIEND R. M. Furman, Esq., has retired from the editorial management of the Henderson Index, and it has been assumed by Cicero W. Harris, Esq. Mr. Furman goes to Portsmouth, to start, in connection with T. J. Lee, Esq., a Sunday Weekly.—He possess the energy and ability to succeed, and has our earnest wishes for all good fortune. Mr. Harris make his bow in a neat salutatory, which gives evidence of discrimination and talent. We cordially extend to him the right hand of fellowship.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Valuable Real and Personal Property for sale, on the 28th inst: Jno. W. Cunningham, Person Co.—See advertisement.

The Milburnie Mills, Farm, Fishery, &c., will be rented out on Saturday next, for the ensuing year: W. H. Crow, President Neuse Manufacturing Co.

M. Grauseman, Clothier and Merchant Tailor, Fayetteville Street, announces a superb stock of Beavers, Castors, Doeskins and Ready Made Clothing, to be sold at reduced prices. Give him a call.

See Personal: Charles Elliott, Ashboro', N. C.

THE INSOLENCE of the carpet-baggers is disgusting and intolerable, and we trust is rapidly becoming so to the native Radicals, and even the negroes, as well.

The Legislature, at its late session, refused, by a decided vote, to allow the Secretary of State but one Clerk, and this was more than was ever allowed to the venerable Secretary Hill, or Mr. Page, or, until within a year or two past, to Mr Best. The carpet-bag Secretory is not content with one Clerk, and, in defiance of the Legislative declaration that he should have but one, he has, it would seem, employed others, and now asks, or rather directs, the Legislature to pay them salaries to the amount of several hundred dollars!

Who ever heard of such insolence? For once, it seems, the Legislature, radical as it is, manifests a determination to rebuke such outrage. We trust it will, and that this is but the beginning of what is to come, in the same direction.

This same Secretary of State is charged, we know not with what correctness, with having perpetrated another official outrage, which the Legislature ought to look into and rebuke. The law provides that three hundred copies of the "new Code" should be sold for the State, and at cost,—the price to be fixed by the Secretary of State. What did he do? He saw that the Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Constables, lawyers, and others, were obliged to have it; so he brings out, before the State's edition, it is alleged, one of his own, and puts it at the price of three dollars a copy.

Such a wholesale game of plunder, as is now going on in all the departments of government, was never practiced on any people, as these carpet-baggers, and others, in office and out of office, are practicing upon downtrodden North Carolina and her people. There seems to be no relief. God help us!

FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.—The following Circular has just been issued by the Assistant Commissioner of the Bureau for this State, which we publish, as an item of information:

RALEIGH, December 9th, 1868.

CIRCULAR, No. 14.

As a misapprehension seems to exist in regard to the future operations of this Bureau, the Assistant Commissioner desires to inform the citizens of this State that an Act of Congress passed July 25, 1868, provides that the Educational Department, and the Division for the collection and payment of money due soldiers, sailors, and their heirs from the government, on account of military services, be continued after January 1, 1869.

All persons interested in these two branches are therefore notified, that after that date, all the assistance heretofore given will still be extended as far as practicable, by providing for rent, repairs, &c., for school purposes—and the preparation of Claims. Under the reorganization proposed, additional facilities will be obtained, greater attention given to details—and it is confidently expected that still more satisfactory results will be attained.

By order of Bvt. Lt. Col. Jacob F. Chur,
Assistant Commissioner.
HUGO HILLEBRANDT,
Act'g. Ass't., Adjutant General.

DESIGNATION OF HOUSE COMMITTEES.—It is quite significant that Speaker Colfax's additions to committees, charged with what relates to negroes in the South and their carpet-bag leaders, are largely of members of the latter class. It were well, we think, that persons less interested should have been designated. Carpet baggers have come to be subjects of derisive laughter when referred to in places of popular resort, as theatres, &c., and the rank and file of Republicans scarcely conceal their contempt for those who force themselves upon a community, as office holders, through a negro vote exclusively.—*Nat. POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every policy issued. Should any policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States are:

1st. TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Dec 14. M.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14, P. M.

Congress will undoubtedly adjourn from the 21st instant to the 6th prox.

A bill was introduced, to-day, authorizing the continuance of Freedmen's Hospitals at Richmond Vicksburg, New Orleans and Washington, including the Asylum for the aged and infirm freedmen and orphan children, to June next.

The government is considering the propriety of placing the Hospitals in the hands of the Sisters of Charity.

Three inches of ice on the Potomac.

The President has nominated H. A. Smythe Minister to Russia, and Alexander Cummings Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

The Committee on Reconstruction have heard the Mississippi Delegation. No action.

Seward says that the negotiations on the Alabama claims are just now arrested by a change in the ministry. He has reason to believe that the interruption is only temporary, and, under these circumstances, he thinks that the publication of the correspondence will be incompatable with the public interest.

The balance of the session, before recess, will probably be occupied mainly with eulogies of dead members.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14, P. M.

SENATE.—Howard asks the investigation of his management of the Bureau. Referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Sumner presented a memorial from the colored citizens of Georgia, complaining of wrongs to which their race was exposed and asking relief. Also a similar document from North Carolina, asking the continuance of the Freedmen's Bureau.

A memorial was presented from the Mississippi Delegation, claiming that the Constitution was adopted by a majority of the legal voters. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Morton introduced his Financial Bill, providing that, after July, 1871, the Treasury shall redeem legal tenders and fractional notes, and, after January 1872 the National Banks shall redeem their issues in Gold.

A bill was introduced increasing the Associated Justices to fourteen and changing the Circuits.

Stewart introduced a bill, making the holding of office contrary to the 14th. Amendment felony against the United States, punishable by imprisonment not less than three nor more than ten years.

Other proceedings unimportant.

HOUSE.—Under the regular call, a number of bills were offered.

A bill was offered, relative to the appointment of midshipmen from the lately rebellious States.

A bill was offered, repealing the prohibition of mi n in North and South Carolina, Florida, Alabama and Louisiana; and a resolution instructing the Reconstruction Committee to investigate the Ku Klux in Tennessee.

A resolution, giving twenty per cent additional to the Government employees, was tabled, by a vote of 91 to 73.

A resolution denouncing all forms and degrees of repudition of national obligations passed by a vote of 154 to 6.

A resolution was adopted, constructing a Committee of seven, with power to send for persons and papers, to investigate New York election frauds.

Butler introduced a bill to enforce the United States laws in Georgia, which was referred to the Reconstruction Committee.

The Military Committee was directed to enquire into the expediency of repealing the law forbidding militia in the Southern states.

The House then adjourned.

FROM GEORGIA.

ATLANTA Dec. 14, P. M.

The Republicans of Georgia don't endorse the action of Gov. Bullock at Washington, and claim that Geogia is fully reconstructed and entitled to its rights in the Union.

THE CASE OF LT. GOV. GLEASON.

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 14, P. M.

The Supreme Court rendered a judgment of ouster against Lt. Gov. Gleason, forbidding the franchise of office as Lt. Governor.

The probability is that the case will be taken to the United States Supreme Court.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:

Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $230,942.66.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of this present day.

ANDREWS,

THE CLOTHIER,

ONE DOOR SOUTH OF TUCKER HALL,

Is the recognized leader of the Retail Clothing Trade in Raleigh.

Strangers in the City will find it to their advantage to call in and get a

WINTER OUTFIT.

THE REASONS WHY:—Here is the LARGEST ASSORTMENT in Raleigh,

Here is the STYLE;

Here the "ONE PRICE" system is strictly adhered to;

Here are the LOWEST PRICES in the City;

He sells for CASH; therefore, high prices are not essential to success. The man who pays his money at this House contributes nothing towards paying bad debts made by others who "never mind the price."

Great pains taken in fitting the customer and polite attention shown under all circumstances.
